YOUTH LEADERSHIP DAY
Phoenix College – Phoenix, Arizona | Saturday, February 10, 2018

Our youth are our future leaders and we are strongly committed to their success. Each year the Phoenix Indian Center hosts a Youth Leadership Day, planned closely with local organizations, focusing on leadership, college and career readiness, substance abuse preventions, and cultural enrichment. This FREE conference is open to all self-identifying American Indian high school students from across the Phoenix-Mesa Metropolitan Area and surrounding communities.

Conference Goals:

- To establish youth’s career goals,
- To understand and identify barriers to higher education and workforce,
- To have parent involvement in learning prevention strategies as well as developing youth’s guided success strategies, and
- To provide youth the skills to achieve successful, healthy, and balanced lives focusing on the future.

This Leadership Day will feature many exciting events, including:

- Career exploration, college and job readiness preparation,
- Hands-on team building activities,
- Identify barriers to success and establish drug and alcohol prevention skills, and
- Cultural enrichment activities facilitated by American Indian speakers.
